Instructions on File

J. P. MORGAN & CO.

23 Wall Street.

Mr. Junius Morgan, Jr.

Contact begun in September, 1918, by Col. Martin.

In May, 1921, Major Miles requested maps of China, which the firm was unable to supply.

In July, 1921, G-2 requested an interview with Frederick W. Stevens, a representative returning from China. No reply.

March 2, 1922, Maj. Churchill wrote Mr. Morgan, requesting to be put in touch with Mr. Lamont or Mr. Whitney, in order to place at their disposal estimates on Far East, Great Britain, France, Italy, Germany, and Russia, in connection with work on Chinese Consortium.

Have not directed M/A's to get in touch with foreign representatives.

Mr. Junius Morgan, Mr. Bacon and Mr. T. W. Lamont interviewed by Maj. Churchill March 20, 1922. Special sets of estimates on the Far East and major European countries furnished by M.I.2 and left with Mr. Lamont, who promised to criticize them.

Mr. Morgan stated that he was to be in London for the next two years and asked for a letter to the M/A, London, which was furnished April 1.

Mr. Bacon offered to continue the cooperation previously extended by Mr. Morgan. He should be seen on the next trip. Letter to Mr. Lamont Apr. 1, asking for criticisms and comments on the estimates furnished him.

April 7 - reply from Mr. Lamont, stating much interested in work and will criticize as soon as possible.
